ON BEHALF OF THE EDITORS OF WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA
DATED FEBRUARY 16, 1942

GATEWAY TO HOPE AND OPPORTUNITY. ACCESS TO VISTAS GONE AND STILL TO BE

In the past years, Mr. James E. MacMurray has been one of the outstanding donors to our college. It is because of his gifts of vast sums of money and securities to the college which bears his name, MacMurray College for Women, that the editors of Who's Who in America have awarded the above citation which is published in the front of the 1942 edition of that book. We are all proud of the MacMurrays and it is because they have done so much for us and we are so fond of them that we want to pay tribute to them in this book, The Illiwoco of 1942, which holds the record not only of the events and activities of our year in college but also of the things which we hold dear, the things which enable us to find Knowledge, Faith and Service. The MacMurrays are our friends. We are proud of them, and all of us thank them earnestly for all that they have done for MacMurray.

Albert C. Metcalf

In Memoriam

Albert C. Metcalf, registrar and business manager of the college, passed away shortly after Christmas. He served faithfully and well, and the students at MacMurray repaid him with their friendship.

Mr. Metcalf attended the public schools of Jacksonville and was graduated from Illinois College with the class of 1901. From that time until 1909 he was superintendent of the brass furnace department of Western Tube company at Kewanee. He was called to Jacksonville in 1909 for service at the Illinois Woman's college, and had been its business manager since that time.

He was secretary of the board of trustees of the college, and secretary of the faculty.

Mr. Metcalf was president of the board of trustees at Centenary Methodist church, also serving as superintendent of the Sunday school. He was a member of the Rotary club, treasurer and director of the Jacksonville Savings and Loan association, and had been active in Scouting here for more than ten years. He served as a member of the board of education of the Jacksonville public schools, and was a member of the Jacksonville park board for many years.

His absence will long be felt on the campus where he capably served so many years, not only in his official capacity, but also as a friend and comrade of the students and faculty.

Our President

Dr. C. P. McClelland came to MacMurray in 1925 and since that time has spent his time in guiding the students and in making MacMurray a constantly growing and better college for his friends, the students, who fondly call him Dr. Mac.

Our Deans

Three Deans supervise the scholastic and social welfare of the MacMurray student body. Dr. Wendell S. Dysinger, scholastic and vocational advisor, is a kindly and dignified attribute to the college. Dean Roma N. Hawkins is a charming and gracious hostess as she supervises the social life of MacMurray. Dean Mary E. Baird is not only the sophomore class advisor, but acts as guide and helper to students over problems connected with dormitory life. We, at MacMurray, owe a great deal to our Deans, as they have helped us adjust to the newness of college life. And it is to them we owe what we have gained in knowledge, faith and service.

THE ADMINISTRATION

HAROLD E. GIBSON

Mr. Harold E. Gibson is the director of Public Relations for the college and is also the new Business Manager. At the death of Mr. Metcalf, Mr. Gibson added to his list of duties the management of the college finances. He also advises the Greetings staff, the Illiwoco staff and the Debate teams. Publishing the view book and taking care of the college publicity are a part of his busy life.

Dr. Herbert J. Lennox is the director of Admissions. It is his duty to see that the College is duly represented and that prospective students hear about MacMurray. He also arranges for them to make visits to the campus and sees that they have such a good time that they can only want to come back to "dear old Mac."

WE ARE THE SENIORS

Under the enthusiastic direction of Miss Ruth Melville we combined breakfast with class meetings every Thursday morning. Our tea was planned by Mabel Boston and Marsaelle Freidank. At the Senior Ball Bonnie Bach reigned with queenly grace. Virginia Moreland was chairman of the Ball. Our annual class project was a combination style show and bridge party with the theme "Modern Design." Lois Mitchell and Mary Minna Abbott were in charge. Still another project, a marionette show headed by Betty Sinclair helped in enabling the class to present to the college a gift of a one thousand dollar defense bond.

NEXT YEAR we'll be the Seniors—

"Whoops, here they come, whoops, there they go, golly gee—did you ever see such juniors?" Living up to their class song and led by their faithful advisor, Miss Ann Bonansinga, the juniors started the year by giving a hayride for their sister class, the freshmen. Betty Kriegshauser was chairman of the party at the Dunlap Hotel in honor of the seniors. The social highlight of the year was the Junior Prom with Maxine Morris at its head. Besides these and other social activities, the entire class has given its support and efforts toward this year's Illiwoco — the traditional junior class project.

It's Been a Grand Year

The sophomores, class of 1944, took over the campus for the first several days during orientation week, as counselors of incoming freshmen. The class of 1944 decorated the chapel and held table parties during senior recognition, prepared a welcome for their sister class in the early morning of Senior Cut Day, turned down senior beds, and assisted at the Senior Ball. The class project was a dance for the benefit of the government, called the Defense Stamp Stomp, held on January 31, and co-planned by Barb Blake and Mary Edith Kinnaman. The class of '44 was officially recognized by President McClelland in chapel, February 3. The sophomore cotillion took place Saturday, March 7, under the direction of chairman Kay Heerens. With the kindly help of Miss Baird, we look forward to a successful year as junior class at MacMurray.

AND THE FRESHMEN—300 Strong

"New Faces of 1941" was a proper title for the class project and also for us, the freshmen who sponsored it. We chose to present President McClelland with a combination radio-phonograph on his birthday. Inter-society banquets, faculty coffees, and interesting programs planned for the meetings added to the social life. Major occasion of the year was the Freshman Dance, ably planned by Doris Mae King as chairman. It was the outstanding event of our social program. Thus concluded a happy and well-filled year of the "New Faces of 1941."

CAP AND GOWN

When the student body heard the last strains of the organ at the last chapel in May 1941, the group adjourned to the picturesque steps of Old Main for the traditional Cap and Gown ceremony. The members of the senior honorary society, walked, one by one, into the group of assembled juniors below. Each girl was presented with a traditional rose and pin, and mounting the steps, received a kiss from the member she replaced. These girls were the unanimous choice of the retiring members. They are: Nancy Ziesmer, president of the Y.W.C.A.; Betty Lindsay Roseberry, judicial director of the S.G.A.; Alice Osborne, Conlee-Kent Cup winner, and Alberta Young, president of the S.G.A. These girls represent the highest ideals of MacMurray, and live up to the college motto of knowledge, faith, and service.

The Conlee-Kent Cup

The girl who in her sophomore year best exemplified the MacMurray ideals of "Knowledge, Faith, and Service," that is Alice Finney. For this she was awarded the Conlee-Kent Cup, given every year to the junior who has best lived up to these ideals during her sophomore year. Known for her quick smile and her dependability, Alice has served her college in many ways. A member of Phi Nu Society, she has held the leads in many plays, acted as assistant editor of the Greetings, business manager of the Illiwoco, worked on the cabinet of the Y.W.C.A., and is a member of Scribblers' Club. A sweet smile, a friendly nod, always busy—characteristics of Alice Finney.

THE S. G. A.

Two important committees were added to the Student Government organization this year. The Dining Hall Committee supervised dining hall etiquette; and the Student-Faculty Civilian Defense Committee directed MacMurray's participation in war defense activities. The Students' Association, for the first time, was responsible for arrangements for the Wabash College week-end this year. Two delegates were sent to the University of Minnesota convention of the National Students Federation of America in December, and representatives from MacMurray also attended the regional NSFA convention at Purdue University in March. The SGA continued to give emphasis to the Freshman Orientation program and to other traditional college events during the 1941-42 school year.

THE INTERSOCIETY COUNCIL

The Intersociety Council is made up of the presidents and vice-presidents of the four upperclass literary societies. These girls meet every month under the supervision of Dean Roma N. Hawkins, as coordinators of society activities. They are responsible for rushing plans, and arrangements for the annual spring banquets. This year the intersociety activities have been curtailed for defense purposes, but they still continue their main duty of bringing the societies closer together.

PHI KAPPA DELTA

Phi Kappa Delta Society began an eventful year with an impressive initiation of members and installation of officers on October 27. Early in November, the Phi Kappa's became better acquainted at table parties given in McClelland Hall. The society sponsored a booth at the Y.W.C.A. Bazaar with very successful results, and ended the first semester with a gala Christmas Party in Ann Rutledge lounge.

"Rich Man, Poor Man," directed by Virginia Allen, was given in the annual play contest, and it started a very busy second semester. President McClelland showed the girls moving pictures of MacMurray taken during past years. Various members of the faculty were entertained at a formal coffee. The climax of the year's activities came April 18 when the Kappa Sigma Theta Society joined the Phi Kappa Delta's at the Colonial Inn for a formal banquet. Betty Jane Miles, the sponsor of the society, lent a helping hand in all the society functions.

DELTA THETA NU

Delta Theta Nu was carried through an exceptionally successful year by its able officers. A picnic in the fall was the beginning of a great variety of activities for the year. The members then enjoyed a serenade before the Christmas vacation. In the spring a coffee, to which faculty members were invited, was a great success. As a climax to the year's activities a formal banquet was held at the Colonial Inn. Throughout the year the members were entertained with numerous programs displaying Delta Theta Nu talent, which was not lacking. Members of the society were most proud of winning the cup for the best play in competition with other freshman societies. The winning play, "The Happy Journey," by Thornton Wilder, was excellently directed by Rachel White. Much of the credit for the society's successful year goes to its sponsor, Betty Hamilton. It was through her inspiring efforts that Delta Theta Nu was launched into a year of happy sailing.

KAPPA SIGMA THETA

During an impressive candlelight service at the beginning of the year, the officers of Kappa Sigma Theta pledged their loyalty to their society. Under the able guidance of Marguerite Sethness the Kappa Sigs enjoyed an eventful year. In December they contributed a large part to the Y.W. Bazaar, and later in the same month the girls spent a gay evening at an indoor wiener roast at the P.E. Cabin.

Their second semester activities began with the production of a one-act comedy, "Farmer Brown's Pig," directed by Jane Lyman. Together with the Phi Kappa Delta Society the girls ushered in Spring at a gala banquet in the Colonial Inn. They climaxed an unforgettable year by entertaining the faculty at a formal coffee.

PHI TAU EPSILON

The Social Room in Main Hall was the center of many interesting meetings of Phi Tau Epsilon. One of the major events of the year was the one-act play, "Goodnight, Please," which was ably directed by Bonnie Bach. The Phi Taus' hands were never idle, for much time and effort was spent on making articles to be sold at the Y.W.C.A. bazaar. The last meeting before Christmas vacation was a Christmas party. An all night hike to the P.E. cabin and table parties also added to the pleasure of the members. The sponsor, Alice Osborne, gave the members inspiration to do better and bigger things. The year came to a successful close with the annual formal banquet.

"You are drafted!" and, in reply, the pledges of Theta Sigma wearing the red, gold, and black started active service following their initiation October 6. Betsey Purnell, junior, was in charge of rushing.

The early part of the school year was spent in finishing the decoration which was started last spring with the untiring help of Miss Presper.

Following rush week, the Theta's enjoyed a hay ride and picnic at the cabin where the "draftees" spent the evening entertaining the "drafters."

The annual Alumnae coffee was held November 3 in the newly decorated hall. The two events of the year which will hold the most memories for Theta members were the traditional dinner dance April 24 and the Spring Banquet, May 22.

PHI NU

Phi Nu rushees "flew" from picnic to dinner dance in Army and Navy planes, completing their rushing trip in the land of the hula and the lei with Dorothy Ann Granier and Mary Jo Brown acting as pilots. Of the activities of the year those to be remembered are Hell Week with the pledges gowned in black, carrying gifts of candy and cigarettes; Elaine Brand interpreting "The Reluctant Dragon;" the Alumnae Coffee in the lounge of Ann Rutledge; Christmas caroling with the Phi Alphas; the sketches by Dolly Movius, Evelyn Staben, and Grace Fenne at the Y.W.C.A. bazaar; and Mrs. Schaeffer's poetry. Mary Ann Freeland was chairman of the Mac-Wabash coke dance in the Hub to welcome the cavemen to the campus, and on the traditional night before May Day—the climax of the year—the dinner dance planned by Jane Wood.

BELLES LETTRES

Belles Lettres began an active year with colorful rushing parties. The Old Southwest was used as a theme which included a Bull Session, Barbecue and Theatre Party at No Man's Ranch, and a Spanish-Fiesta Dinner-Dance at the Dunlap Hotel. The Society donated some of the books from its collection to the Henry Pfeiffer Library. It was decided to buy a defense bond rather than to have the annual open meeting. The social calendar included a bridge tournament with Phi Nu's and an intersociety barbecue at the P. E. cabin. The annual spring dance was held with the Lamdas.

At a B. L. Tea, the members discuss . . . a meeting.

Jean Kisner, president of B. L., like the rest of us, is doing her share.

Lambda Alpha Mu prepares . . . a rush "coketail" party.

LAMBDA ALPHA MU

Lambda Alpha Mu joined the parade of patriotic themes for rushing with the co-captains Margaret Hunt and Ruth Thomson steering the rushees on a happy and exciting course under Hawaiian skies and in King Neptune's realm as plotted in their Sailor's Diary. Homespun and fun times largely filled the year's programs and events leaving happy memories of a wiener roast given by the pledges, carols and candy canes at the Christmas party, "knitting mittens" for the Knitting Nook of the Y.W.C.A.-A.C.E. bazaar, the "battle of the classes" in a quiz program, and the intersociety barbecue. Candlelight and dignity had its place, too, in the alumnae coffee, the spring banquet, and the pirates' gold of the dinner dance with Belles Lettres. The annual open meeting was "blackened out" as agreed in all societies.

TOWN GIRLS

A spooky Hallowe'en party at the Cabin; a Christmas party, featuring the skit, "Wild Nell"; a spring picnic and dance; a benefit bridge, and climaxing all — the "Blackout Ball," February 22; these were the highlights of the year for the Jacksonville Club. The proceeds from the ball were given to the U.S.O. for recreational facilities for men in the armed services. The aim of this club is to promote unity among the non-resident girls at MacMurray. Different members of the club have charge of the monthly business and social meetings under the supervision of Dr. Elsa P. Kimball, sponsor of the group. At each meeting one faculty member is invited as a guest. The club members are also pushing a drive in the school to promote the idea of emphasizing and fostering traditions of the alma mater.

TIRONIAN

Beginning with a coffee to honor its new members, Tironian started off on a busy year. A movie, "The Champions Write," portraying national and international shorthand champions in action, was of special interest to these majors and minors in the Business Administration Department. Dr. Folkerts, head of the department, gave several lectures, and at one meeting a discussion was led by several members on how to get a job. Social, as well as business activities occupied their time, as demonstrated by their old-fashioned Christmas party and a successful annual banquet featuring a Southern theme.

Y. W. C. A.

The Backwards Party which the Young Women's Christian Association gave early in September in honor of the freshmen led, with growing enthusiasm, to the formal recognition services and breakfast. Thanksgiving baskets were Y.W.'s greeting to several townspeople and the Thanksgiving tea dance to Mac girls. The co-sponsored Bazaar and children's party made Christmas a busy time. Also included in the activities of the organization were a party for transfers, Heart Sister Week, the Day of Prayer, the children's Easter Party, and a World Student Service Fund campaign. Our girls showed themselves Child Welfare minded by helping at a clinic, taking a survey, and adopting Foster Children. A faculty advisory board was an added inspiration throughout the year, and the May Day breakfast climaxed the activities. The Geneva fund pledged to send several Mac girls this year to the annual summer Geneva camp.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

International Relations Clubs are sponsored by the Carnegie Endowment in many colleges throughout the world. The purpose of the I.R.C. of MacMurray College is to broaden the understanding of its members through the study and discussion of current world affairs. Owing to the College Defense Program during the latter part of the year the I.R.C. promoted discussion groups following various speakers on international affairs. In November the club sponsored a Round Table on National Defense. A familiar sign in Science Hall is the I.R.C. News Service bulletin board on which news is posted daily. Interesting and timely books from the latest publications are presented by the Carnegie Endowment twice yearly and special shelves are reserved in the library for this collection. Coordinator of activities and faculty adviser is Dr. W. B. Hendrickson .

Programs, planned around the theme of professional opportunities for home economic majors, included outstanding speakers such as Mrs. Clara Gebhard Snyder, Director of Food and Nutrition of the Wheat Flour Institute, and Mrs. Brindley of the Bloomington Pantagraph. The new kindergarten conveniently located on First Harker was the meeting place for Kindergarten Club, a branch of the Association for Childhood Education. At a State A.C.E. convention Miss Addenbrooke was elected sponsor for all student A.C.E. groups and Florence Oltman was elected to take charge of their publications. The annual Christmas Bazaar was held with Y.W.C.A. The A.C.E. State Board meeting held in March brought many important people in the field of childhood education to our campus. In the late Spring "Toyland," an operetta written by Mary Frances Crump, was presented by the kindergarten children under the direction of the practice teachers. The year was climaxed by the annual breakfast for the seniors in May which was held at Nichols Park.

CHICAGO CLUB

Organized a year ago, the MacMurray Chicago Club is energetic in promoting a spirit of closer comradeship among the girls living near, as well as in Chicago. At short monthly meetings following table parties in the dining hall, the members of the club plan for activities during the vacations. New freshmen were given a friendly welcome into the club at a luncheon at Marshall Field's before college opened. In spite of a sub-zero wave at Christmas, club members met in the Loop for a theater party and tea. During spring vacation the girls sponsored a dance in Chicago in cooperation with the United Service Organization. Plans for the summer were formulated during a week-end at the Cabin. At these summer get-togethers, entering freshmen will be welcomed by the members and familiarized with the College.

Keener appreciation of the language they study, gained through comradeship in the monthly meetings—this is the aim of the German Club. In realizing their ambition, its members engage in numerous get-togethers. These include the singing of old German folk songs, directed by Janice Bigelow, accompanied by Betty Benz at the piano. Preparation for the annual Christmas party occupied the girls during most of the first semester. Now an organization two years old, under the able leadership of Dr. Gamper, the German Club has full reason to be proud of the strides it has made.

ST. LOUIS—E. ST. LOUIS CLUBS

The Saint Louis and East Saint Louis Clubs were formed not so very long ago, for the purpose of establishing a closer friendship among the girls from that area. Both clubs make it a point to entertain future "Mac" students from their section, and to make them feel at home on the MacMurray campus. During the Christmas holidays they gave luncheons for new students, and here at school they have occasional get-togethers at the cabin or in the dorms. The East Saint Louis Club takes in girls not only from its immediate vicinity, but also from Belleville, Edwardsville, and Alton.

SCRIBBLERS CLUB

By the feathers in their hair you will know the new Scribblers each fall. On the day of initiation the campus sprouts poems from the trees, each new Scribbled having to display three original selections from her own work. The most unique club on the campus—Scribblers limits its membership to twenty. At regular meetings manuscripts are read and criticized by the group under the leadership of their sponsor, Dr. Burrows. Scribblers Christmas cards are a MacMurray tradition, and this year the club has taken on an added activity, that of sponsoring the all school literary contest and publishing a magazine at the close of the year containing the prize winning selections.

SPRINGFIELD CLUB

The Springfield Club has been functioning during the past few years for the benefit of the girls of that city who attend or are planning to attend MacMurray. The chief objective of the organization is to acquaint incoming freshmen with the old members of the club and with the new life they may expect in Jacksonville. During the summer, meetings are held every two weeks and include picnics, teas, swimming and bridge parties at Lake Springfield. The annual picnic given by the Springfield Alumnae is a highlight of the season. Several get-togethers are planned for the school term and the winter vacations. The outstanding activity of every year is a luncheon given by the club for prospective students in the Leland Hotel Sunroom at Christmas time.

Under the able sponsorship of Miss Knapp the Spanish club meetings in Jane Hall Lounge have been interesting and instructive. Columbus Day, El Dia De los Muertos and the Christmas party were high spots in the Spanish club calendar. Although young in years the club aspires to realize its goal: greater friendship for Pan-America.

THE A. A. BOARD

The Athletic Association officers, sports managers, and class representatives comprise the A.A. Board, which is responsible for interclass sports, the awards, traditional occasions such as May Day, Dad's Day and the annual Hallowe'en costume party. This year, the outstanding accomplishment of the board was its Keep Fit for Defense campaign. Included in this was the advancement of recreational sports. Every afternoon from 4:30 to 5:30 tennis, archery, ping pong, volleyball, badminton and even jacks, and jump rope are offered for the enjoyment of all. The campaign was a great success as many of the girls who do not usually participate in extracurricular athletics found some game offered that she could play, and, as result, the number out every afternoon was greatly increased.

Mabel plays the piano, as well as games.

Giggles at midnight, popcorn and apples in front of the fireplace, sweet rolls and bacon in the morning, means that the Physical Education Majors and Minors are out at the Cabin on Lake Mauvaisterre. New slip covers, red and blue paint, lamps and rugs are proof that the forty-four heads and hands are working to "fix-up" the Cabin. An outstanding booth at the Christmas Bazaar, Sunday night serenades, impressive campfire initiation all symbolize the standards these jolly girls strive to uphold. Movies, club songs, and interesting meetings are among their many accomplishments. They have played an outstanding part in defense work by their clever campaign, "Keep Fit for Defense". With schemes in their minds and smiles on their faces, they drive to keep high morale of spirit and health to develop mutual strength of body and mind among their contemporaries and friends.

ARMY AND NAVY TIE IN TRADITIONAL GAME

Great enthusiasm was shown again this hockey season with a large group out for the first fall sport of the year. The preliminary tournament games were followed by the class games. All teams were quite equally matched and equally spirited. A three-way tie marked the championship with the Seniors, Juniors and Freshmen all sharing the cup.

The renewed tradition of playing the Army-Navy game on Thanksgiving Day was repeated with a hundred per cent turnout of the student body along with the mascot of the Army, the donkey; and the mascot of the Navy, the goat. Weather conditions threatened, but the game was played on a muddy, uncertain field in spite of it.

THE ARMY

Sailors from the Junior and Freshman classes made up the Navy, while privates from the Senior and Sophomore classes composed the Army. A high point of the game was the nationally rated hockey official that umpired the two evenly matched teams.

Varsity players were chosen from the Army-Navy teams, but they didn't attend a hockey sports' day in the fall as they had the year before.

All girls out for the hockey season enjoyed the table parties at which Miss Mahaney, the coach, presented the cup to the captains of the winning teams. Irene La Bahn, hockey manager, deserves much credit for a most successful hockey season.

YES, THE ARMY BEAT THE NAVY

The basketball floor saw battles of skill and strategy in keeping with the times. Although the basketball season was unusually short an evident display of enthusiasm was shown by the class teams in a closely contested tournament. All teams anticipated carrying away the championship plaque.

The last of the scheduled games found the Junior and Senior teams striving for the much desired championship. The game was well matched and breathtaking but ending in favor of the Seniors by one point, the score being 20-19. The faithful supporters of the class teams added their bit by snappy cheers and Victory songs.

In response to the enthusiasm shown for horse-back riding, the MacMurray Riding Club has been organized to promote keen interest in this sport among its members. Opportunities for exhibiting their skill are afforded, for under the sponsorship of their instructor, Miss Kitner, the riding team, composed of Doris Greenwalt, Kay Hug, Virginia Moreland, Evelyn Staben, June Graham, Jean Moore, Hope Ayrault, Nancy Jones, and Dolly Movius, participated in a meet at Monticello College last fall. Taking their turn as hostesses, the MacMurray team entertained Monticello at a return meet on April 18. Out for greater laurels, a riding team competed at Champaign in the Intercollegiate Meet on May 8 and 9. On the home "bridle path," so to speak, was held the Annual Spring Horse Show, sponsored by the Riding Club, on May 2. As a result of their many activities, there is no doubt that this organization has made MacMurray riding-conscious.

Every Tuesday night these seven girls come together under the supervision and direction of Miss Helen Mahaney for the purpose of devoting their time to modern dance. This hour every week has lent grace to their movements and added to their physical welfare. Although they work toward no special project or performance, they are willing to lend their talents at any time to any group. The club has little organization, having no officers and no official business. The purpose is the study and practice of modern dance in all its aspects. Membership is limited, and girls wishing to obtain admittance must pass a committee selected by the club.

The high point of the MacMurray College debate season this year was that the Illinois Intercollegiate Debate League annual state tournament was held on our campus March 13-14. Fifty-four teams, representing nineteen colleges, met to engage in six rounds of debates on the intercollegiate debate question, "Resolved: That the democracies should form a federation to establish and maintain the eight Roosevelt-Churchill principles." MacMurray's team was composed of Eleanor Garvin and Nancy O'Harra, Affirmative, and Mary Ann Freeland and Doris Arnold, Negative. Two debaters, Mary Ann Freeland and Doris Arnold, repre-

PLAYERS' GUILD

The Players' Guild is the honorary dramatic organization on the MacMurray College campus. It is composed of upperclass girls who have made outstanding contributions to our College Theater either before the footlights or backstage. Together with the speech and drama faculty they sponsor three annual events in addition to overseeing the work of the theater. These events are the Freshman Variety Show, Founders' Day, and the Freshman one-act plays.

OUR THEATER

This year our College theater under the direction of Mr. Volney Hampton has been very active and has offered the students some of the best plays. Included among the plays given in 1941 is Andre Obey's "Noah." Jane Lyman ably carrying the role of Noah helped make the play one of the highlights of the year for Mac-

Murray girls. The excellent scenery, which was Rousseau inspired, and the lighting which added much to the effect of the play was under the direction of Mr. Herbert Phillipi. The fantasy, "Noah," revealed the thoughts and actions of this wise old man who was prepared when the "rains came." When Dad's Day rolled around, the little theater was prepared with another fascinating play, "Ladies in Retirement." Alice Finney played the role of the murderess with great skill and the male lead was carried by Delbert Wolff of Northwestern. This psychological melodrama was written by Edward Percy and Reginald Denham and has been popular on both the stage and screen. The play concerns a retired actress who has as her housekeeper companion a woman of unsuspected powers. Her two sisters come to stay with her, supposedly on a visit, and when the woman is murdered it is revealed that the housekeeper would do anything for her sisters. Further complications develop when the young man with whom the murdered woman has had an affair appears. He turns out to be the nephew of Ellen Creed, the housekeeper. The play develops around an erie situation that adds to the mystery.

"Brief Music," with Joan Lukeman and Phyllis Campbell playing the leads is the graduation play which the theater group is now working on.

COLLEGE CHOIR

The college choir is one of the most important organizations on the campus in furnishing entertainment and services to the students. It is composed of twenty upper-class girls, all of whom have definite singing ability. The group is under the leadership of Miss Anna Bonansinga, known affectionately to the girls as "Miss Ann." The choir is a busy group for not only do they, along with their accompanist, Beatrice Giessing, furnish music for the weekly chapel services in Centenary Church, but they also present programs for various civic organizations. This year they presented concerts in Springfield, Belleville, Edwardsville and Granite City, and went on a three day tour, which included two concerts in Mattoon and one presented at Wabash College. In addition they gave a spring concert and sponsored a dance. In conjunction with the Madrigal chorus, they sang for the Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter Vespers.

Madrigal, one of the major musical organizations on campus, to which any MacMurray student is eligible, offers an excellent opportunity to its many members. Led by Dr. Joseph Cleeland, director of the Music Department at MacMurray, Madrigal has participated in choral singing of musical masterpieces. The repertoire includes such works as Bach's chorals, the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "Messiah," and Mozart's "Alleluia," in addition to the works of the more modern composers, Rachmaninoff, Faust, and Gasprini. At the Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter Vesper services this organization played a prominent part.

MAC MURRAY BAND

Every Monday and Thursday afternoons MacMurray's band assembles to enjoy for an hour the playing of good music. From these practices come the peppy marches which add to Army-Navy hockey games and pep meetings, and the music which entertains at the Dad's Day meetings. This year the band is proud of the fact that much time has been spent on arrangements of music by the Master composers. This has aided in the appreciation of the better music and has given a definite sense of satisfaction for having mastered something worthwhile. Under the guidance of Mr. Strickler the band has had a very successful and enjoyable year.

THE GREETINGS EDITORIAL STAFF

Putting out a six-page edition of the Mac-Murray College Greetings every week covering school and also world events, plus several eight-page papers on important Saturdays, keeps the editorial staff of the Greetings on its toes. Assignments are made at early Monday morning staff meetings; articles are handed in by Thursday; the proof is read on Friday; and the latest issue is "put to bed" Saturday morning. Besides this perpetual work, staff members find time to attend the three-day national A.C.P. convention in St. Louis, at which the paper was given the highest rating of All-American, and also the state convention at Bloomington.

They brought ideas to further their goal of making the Greetings one of the best college newspapers of its kind. The year of 1941 was ended with a Christmas dinner and theater party. This spring they had an all school dance which made their bank account swell, and so their year ends, successful and full of accomplishment due to the capable leadership and full cooperation of everyone.

And serve the finest! The low cost of one cent a serving for individual Sherman Blend Tea, makes it the most profitable beverage you can serve. In fact, it is so inexpensive that the value gained in guest satisfaction alone makes a cheaper tea an extravagance. According to a letter from a pleased patron in Kansas, travels clear around the world have failed to disclose a tea to surpass the fragrant, exquisite bouquet of Sherman Blend Tea.

Station B.U.Y. calling all

To hear all the latest reports tune to Radio Station W.L.D.S., 1180 on your radio dial. United press direct-wire news service, music, drama, sports, features. Mac Murray is on the air Friday at 3:30

Seen at Kresges -- Mac Murray students. Description: all purchasing those little necessary extras that appear constantly on all their shopping lists --- you know cosmetics, table party favors, etc. Follow them!

Deppe's has been held up -- proceed to scene of Mac Murray's shopping invasion at once. You'll remain to participate -- irresistible sweaters, skirts, anklets, everything are the victims.

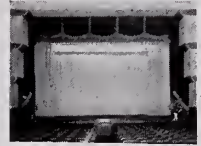

Clues that all sorts of food that's good can be found at the City Gardens has turned many a Mac Murray sleuth in their direction -- especially when it's "spread" night.

Station B.U.Y. --- Signing off. We extend our appreciation to the Shop Scout

students and friends of MacMurray College

You don't have to be a detective to know that the Fox - Illinois Theater and the Times Theater with all their wonderful movies are helping more MacMurray lessons escape being studied than any other suspects in town.

News Flash: Eradicators apprehended!! It was found upon close inspection by MacMurray girls that all spots, stains and just plain dirt can be eradicated when Larson's cleans that dress, coat or what have you.

Calling College MMC--- all girls start immediately for the dining hall--- surround it and wait to find out who has been bringing the delicious food we have there. If it's the Bunn Capital Grocery's (and it probably will be) grab it, it's good!

Pick up sight unseen; a lovely bouquet at Hoffman's for that special occasion. You can't go wrong with their flowers. Try and see.

for all valuable information just given.

... and across the beautiful sweep of Mac-Murray's campus the name and fame of BURGER-BAIRD is known to capables such as Grace Fenne and Alice Finney. Members of Boards of Publication, college and university officials and professors, know of the ability and integrity of this company. For over half a century we have served faithfully the schools of America. A complete understanding of the problems confronting an editor and business manager of a yearbook, is ours.

So, against that day when you, too, will be buying photo-engravings, fix in your mind the name BURGER-BAIRD. Join the ranks of those from Arizona, Utah, Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, New York, Maryland, and many other states, who know from experience that we are "the" engravers of the Middle West.

For good printing plates (the best), for unexcelled service (anywhere in America), for an interpretation of your ideas, for an understanding of your problems and objectives, for all those things you expect from your engraver (and more), look to the "Heart of America" and BURGER-BAIRD. We stand ready to serve!
